

EMILY KUREY

MEMBER SINCE 2004
ALPHARETTA, GA

Kurey File:

2006:

Atlanta-Kauai Team Member

2007:

All-AJG Team Member

2008:

AJG Most Improved Player Award
All-AJG Team Member
Won - Georgia Vets Junior Classic
Won - Wilmington Island Junior Classic
5th - US Teen World Championships

2009:

2nd - Daniel Island Junior Golf Classic

AJG: Dream foursome?

EK: Me, Zach Johnson, Tiger Woods, Adam Scott

AJG: What are some activities you enjoy away from the golf course?

EK: I like to sing, hang out with my friends and family and participate in church activities.

AJG: Favorite Golfers:

EK: Zach Johnson and Tiger Woods

AJG: Favorite Course(s)?

EK: University of Georgia, Wilmington Island and Pinehurst No. 5

AJG: Favorite food?

EK: I love salmon :)

AJG: How long have you been playing golf?

EK: About five years.

AJG: Who introduced you to the game?

EK: My dad introduced me when I was about 8.

AJG: How much time do you spend practicing your game?

EK: When I have school, I spend at least an hour to an hour and half a day. When I don't have school, I usually spend all day at the golf course.

AJG: What is your proudest accomplishment in golf?

EK: I came in fifth at the 2008 US Teen World Championships with scores of 76-75-75-226.

AJG: What impact has AJG has on your game and your personal life?

EK: AJG has had a huge impact on my personal life and my golf game. Every summer I am so excited to compete in the tournaments and meet new people. At the end of every summer, I walk away with new friends and a whole new perspective on the game of golf. AJG has taught me all about integrity and how to respect this wonderful game.

AJG: What are your goals with golf in the future?

EK: I want to keep practicing and work my way up to earning a full college golf scholarship.